Plot-level field measurements collected near Barrow, AK determined LUE and spectral characteristics of functional types. Ground measured spectra used as endmembers for unmixing of Hyperion imagery and the derived cover fractions used to calculate regional variations in LUE. Resulting LUE values were strongly correlated with Gitelson Chlorophyll index.